The difference: External connects to the host, other vms and the internet. Internal connects to the host and to the other vms. Private connects to the vms.